Melvin C. Roundy

MESA, Ariz. — Melvin C. Roundy, 53, former Utah County resident, died Aug. 16, 1987 in the crash of a Northwest Airlines DC-9 in Detroit, Mich.

He was an airlines captain of a Boeing 727. He was returning from flight duty as a passenger when the accident occurred.

He was born March 14, 1934 in Fielding. Box Elder County. He was graduated form American Fork High School and attended Brigham Young University and Utah State University, graduating in political science.

He was a Navy fighter pilot for six years, reaching the rank of lieutenant.

Surviving are his parents, Clarence and Nora Roundy, Orem; his wife, and children, Bryan Roundy of Salt Lake City; Dean, Shari and Susan Roundy, all of southern California; Shelley, Lisa and Amy, of Mesa; stepsons, Randy and Tracy; sisters, Lozina Brooks of Clearfield; Fay Thornton of American Fork; and Joy Lawrence of Morrell, Neb.

Funeral was Monday in Mesa, Ariz., and burial with full military honors in the Mt. View Cemetery, Mesa.